

Wiring Diagram 11

Sunline Driver System with one light

During the day if the light switch is in the off position the light will be fed by the solar panel which in turn responds to outside conditions. If full light is required, then simply turn the switch on for full powered light.

Note: During the night the solar panel will not provide power to the light.